

Drama and Language Learning

with
Erika Piazzoli

The Saturday
after the midterm break...

Saturday 27th February 2016
At Trinity College Dublin.

A fun, interactive workshop for educators looking for creative ways into language learning

This workshop is an introduction to drama for languages education, created for teachers who are interested in exploring experiential learning through drama. The workshop focuses on drama as a methodology for language learning, for primary and post-primary level teachers, drama facilitators and language teachers who work with students learning through an additional/new language.

Certificates of attendance available on the day

Registration: 9.30am (complimentary tea & coffee)

Workshop: 10am to 1.30pm.

Location: Arts Building. Trinity College Dublin (6th Floor, Room C6.002 the TRIS seminar room*. We recommend using the lift. Watch out for ADEI signs and members to guide you.

 not the usual ADEI event room*

Connect with ADEI

ww.adei.ie

Registration

By emailing : dramaadei@gmail.com

Cost : €30 . Groups of 2 or more: €25 each

Full-time Student/Concession: €12

Places are limited so get booking!

ADEI would like to register thanks to Trinity College Dublin for supporting this event