

Drama in Education for Children with Special Educational Needs

with
Susan Kennedy-Killian
& Elaine Clotworthy

Saturday, 28th February, 2015

Room 3074, Arts Building, Trinity College Dublin, Dublin 2

A practical workshop for teachers working with primary school children with Special Educational Needs.

The workshop explores the use of process drama for developing social skills, self-esteem and peer relationships.

A detective drama where the children work as a team to discover the clues, unravel the mystery and solve the case.

Full lesson plans and materials provided.

Certificates of attendance available on the day.

About our Facilitators

Susan is a teacher with a Master's degree in Drama in Education from Trinity College Dublin (TCD). She has worked with learners with SEN in preschool, primary school, post-primary and adult education settings. Susan was awarded the Middletown Scholarship for doctoral study at Trinity College where she is currently studying for a Ph.D. in Education.

Elaine is a primary school teacher who has worked in both the mainstream classroom and resource setting. She has Master's degree in Drama in Education from Trinity College Dublin (TCD) and has experience working with children with a variety of SEN, in particular ADHD.

Susan and Elaine work with Dr Carmel O'Sullivan's Aspire/TCD 'Social Drama' sessions for children and young people with Autism Spectrum Disorders.

Registration: 9:30 a.m. (complimentary tea/coffee)

Workshop: 10 a.m.—1.30 p.m.

Connect with ADEI

ww.adei.ie

Registration

By emailing : booking@adei.ie

Cost : €30 . Groups of 2 or more: €25 each

Full-time Student/Concession: €12

ADEI would like to register thanks to Trinity College, Dublin for supporting this event